From New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Oct 23

The city papers have for some time past been ventilating that the State was being defrauded of money amounting in the aggregate to several thousand dollars under color of the law for the relief of the veterans of 1814 and 1815 the general impression being that there were not a hundred of this class living

In regard to this matter, Judge Abell of the 1st Dist Court yesterday assembled the Grand Jury and delivered a lengthy charge of which the following is an extract

"I have felt it my duty to call you together in this summary manner to check and finally stop if possible one of the most daring and successful frauds that has yet been perpetrated upon the State treasury and this is accomplished by wholesale perjury and subordination of perjury and it is believed by the complicity of officers in position

He states that he alludes to the false and fraudulent obtaining of Warrants upon the State Treasurer by virtue of the Act of the General Assembly approved in 1868 for the relief of the Veterans who served under Gen Jackson in the battle of New Orleans

THIRD DAY.

Friday Oct 22

President Wasson in the chair Committee on preparing instructions to County societies in regard to the expenditure of the State aid set apart for addresses and the formation of Farmer's Clubs within their limits, reported that the Secretary be instructed to notify the Secretaries forthwith of the necessity of complying with the requirements of the act before the first Wednesday in December, 1869

The facts are if the societies do not comply with those requirements they will lose their State aid for the year The State now requires one quarter of the aid to be expended for the above named purposes

The matter of conducting county societies and exhibitions was taken up and remarks made by the President, Messrs Scammon and H Hamlin of Bangor

Hon H Hamlin said he was very much mortified at the small attendance of farmers from this section and of the citizens of Bangor at the sessions of this Board, but there were some excuses, it being a very busy season and the occurrence of the late freshet, and additional labors in caring for the lumber interests consequent thereon

Mr Thing, the member from Kennebec, was called upon and read a paper upon the Influence of Agricultural Societies upon the community Laid upon the table for further consideration

Committee on Potato Exhibition reported

Z A Gilbert, member from Androscoggin, read a paper on the Cultivation of Potatoes, after which the question was taken up for discussion.

In answer to a question Mr Gilbert said the Orono and Jackson potatoes had not been profitable with him as a field crop after repeated trials

Speaking of weight of potatoes he said but very few varieties will weigh 60 pounds to a bushel It is said in Bangor they are usually sold in market by measure, and the producers are obliged to sell five pecks for a bushel

Mr Bartlett thought with potatoes at $1,50 a bushel it would be pretty expensive measuring to seed with large potatoes and with large pieces

Mr Burleigh of Fairfield said he always cuts his potatoes, plants 18 inches apart, and puts in only one piece to the hill Always over 200 bushels or more per acre—Manures high with barnyard manure and phosphate Has never seen any difference in the produce of potatoes from seed from the different ends of the potatoes

Mr Wasson of Ellsworth said the potato crop is next to hay the largest agricultural production in Maine. We are but little in advance of many years ago in knowledge of the cultivation of potatoes Hopes that some facts may be learned and settled by this exhibition and discussion which will be of benefit to us in our farming operations another year

Mr. Burleigh would not plant potatoes more than one year on the same ground

Mr Goodale of Orrington said no sensible farmer would grow potatoes more than two years on the same soil—one year is preferable

Mr Mower of Bangor said the potato required a large amount of potash By analysis and practice he had not considered the potato a very exhaustive crop as had been asserted by the lecturer This is a question of great importance to Penobscot county We must raise something to sell from our farms, and what shall it be?

Mr. Hamlin said his soil was a clay loam Agreed mostly with the experience of the lecturer, but disagreed on some points—Plants upon a greensward, manure turned in, harrows and plants upon the surface Wherever it is wet potatoes will rot. Cuts his seed and don't believe the nutriment in the seed tubers is worth anything. The potato gets its nourishment from the soil Applys a manure of one part gypsum one part air slacked lime, and four parts ashes, in drills, eight to ten inches apart in the drill Raised about 400 bushels per acre

Mr Percival of Vassalboro, said it is impossible to establish any fixed rule, in the cultivation of potatoes, for use of the farmers of Maine. Believes a change of seed has very much to do in improving the crop A change of seed from a clay loam to sandy upland, and vice versa, is admirable Changes his seed once in five years. In favor of from two to four stalks in a hill Cuts his seed and puts two pieces in a hill, 18 inches apart Wouldn't plant small potatoes and does not like very large ones Relates an experiment with different fertilizers Does not hill much—is opposed to hilling any crop About the best fertilizer in the world is brains. Barnyard manure is the best—when that is all used then resort to commercial fertilizers. Could discover no difference in the quality of his potatoes raised on the different manures

Mr Comins of Eddington, said he cannot afford to plant whole potatoes when they are over a dollar a bushel. Prefers large sized potatoes for seed Would not place the flesh or cut side down, because if very wet those laid cut side down will rot, as he had proved by experiment.

Mr Emery of Bangor, said his experience (potato, not political—Rep) had been very much like that of Mr. Hamlin. Believed in planting seed from large potatoes In growing stock we use our largest and best Gave his experience in growing the Early Rose—raising two bushels on three rods Had experimented with several kinds of commercial manures Found the yield in favor of phosphate manures was as three to one as opposed to the lime, ashes, salt and potash compost Rotted but very little on superphosphate

Adjourned till afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Discussion of varieties of potatoes. Mr Thing of Kennebec in the chair.

Mr. Wasson of Ellsworth said the original potato presented but two varieties, but two colors of skin and two colors of blossom But now there is an intermixing and we have numberless varieties and every form of shape, all sorts of shades, &c There are now 500 varieties catalogued

What is the origin of these varieties? The Chenango was the best variety for years and now it has entirely disappeared. The Orono for some time, but it is now losing its place, and now varieties must and are taking its place. The California when first introduced was of a calico color, now it is white in some cases, but usually red.

Believes that potatoes may mix in the hill where unlike varieties are planted side by side Has been testing to decide what he can do by grafting the potato in the tuber while growing He took the Goodrich, a white, and the "Bermuda," a red, round potato—The result was a potato like neither of the originals, but resembling each Has experimented with these varieties two years

From certain causes we have a great variety of potatoes, but what we want to know is which is the best kind Has cultivated this year 73 varieties giving them the same cultivation His potatoes have rotted very largely, but two kinds have been entirely exempt from disease, They are the Bermuda and the Gleason. Referred to the trouble experienced by the same variety being known under different names in different sections The Early Rose rots very badly with him

Mr Comins of Eddington, gave the result of a potato experiment with the Early Rose, Prince Albert and Lorill Seedling The Rose rots since harvested, the others were free from disease

Mr Ingalls of Bangor, said the question is, which is the best variety to grow for export We want quality, size and durability in the variety grown Bangor exports about 300,000 bushels annually for the last fifteen years, as an average The Jackson was our original market potato The Orono has lately taken its place almost wholly, though western dealers still send for "Jackson white"

Mr Curtis gave and account of the mixing of varieties by grafting.

G P. Sewall doubted that two eyes grafted together would produce but one stalk and the product be different from either

Mr S. L Goodale, asked for information, in regard to the Early Rose its freedom from disease, &c

Mr Cummings said they rotted badly with him as also others who he knew had raised them with the same result. Several others referred to them, saying that they rotted badly Mr Cummings would prefer to have his potatoes remain in the field until they have rotted all they will

Mr. Putnam said he kept his potatoes and vegetables fresh the year round by putting them in barrels and filling them with sand

The Secretary inquired in regard to the variety known as the General Grant, shown here under different names Several spoke upon the matter

The discussion was carried on by several speakers, but nothing new was elicited and if reported would not add to our agricultural knowledge.

Mr L Chamberlain said the day of the Orono is past in Piscataquis. He has raised a seedling from the Orono resembling them very much, but yielding double They are named the Orono seedling.

Mr Wasson referred to the Harrison, which it is claimed in some sections is to take the place of the Orono.

Mr Luce thinks potatoes hybridize The California is a good example. It is changing in color gradually

Mr Wasson asked the difference between the Orono and the Jackson white Mr Bartlett said the latter are rounder and deeper eyed. They are earlier and sprout a week earlier in the same condition.

Recess for examination of specimens of potatoes on exhibition.

The following is a list of the names of exhibitors and number of varieties presented

H S Goodale, Mass, 140 varieties
A Noyes, Bangor, 13 varieties
D H Thing, Mt Vernon 8 varieties
L Chamberlain, Atkinson, seedling
E B Stackpole, Kenduskeag, 47 varieties
J P Putnam Houlton, 2 varieties
Geo Stetson, Bangor, 3 varieties
C Chamberlain Foxcroft, 6 varieties.
H Hamlin, Bangor, 1 variety
S L Goodale, Saco, Sweet Potato
H Luce, Bangor, 7 varieties
Abijah Dunbar, Bangor, 3 varieties

Mr Wm Collins of Harmony presented a detailed experiment in potato raising with twenty-nine varieties. He also sent a specimen of "Down Easters" for exhibition

Mr Wasson called attention to the Harrison. Was very productive, free from rot.

Mr Harley of Piscataquis raised 15 bushels from one peck, no rotten ones, no blossoms

Hon. J H Rice, Bangor said this question was of much importance Referred to the practice of a neighbor, G P Sewall, in preserving potatoes He digs and piles them in the field covering them with about four inches of earth, allowing them to remain till the ground begins to freeze, then removes them to the cellar He has followed this method for ten years with success

Mr Cummings said farmers could not afford to dig their potatoes twice, though the correct theory is what the gentleman has given Had covered his in his cellar bin with turfs, letting them remain till spring They kept well and of good quality.

Mr. Griffin planted an acre of Harrison, Found them sound but not very productive, not so much as the Orono

Mr Gilbert thought the Harrison would be very productive, but not of very good quality.

Mr Wasson gave the history of the Harrison seedling grown in Orland, Hancock County. They originated from sprouts of the Harrison. He also called attention to the Gleason. It is of good quality and has never been a rotten one. But few small ones.

Mr Finson said he had raised the Gleason. Produced well; no rotten ones.

Mr Gilbert made the closing remarks on the subject.

A vote of thanks to the Board was moved by Mr J H Dunning and passed.

Col. Henry Little of Bangor offered a few general remarks upon the subject of agriculture and the improvement in that direction given forty or fifty years ago. He exhibited a specimen of a manure fork used 50 years ago, which did not compare very favorably with the improved tools of to-day. He also gave some examples of experiments in improved farming.

After a few pertinent and timely remarks from the President the meeting adjourned.

SPECIAL SESSION.

A special session of the Board was held Friday evening, and several matters of business, &c., transacted.

Voted, That the thanks of the Board are extended to H. S. Goodale of Massachusetts, for his collection of potatoes exhibited before the Board.

Voted, That the next session of the Board be held at Lewiston in January, 1870.

Adjourned sine die.

Whig & Courier.

JOHN H. LYNDE, - - PROPRIETOR.

SATURDAY, OCT. 23, 1869.

Increase by Reduction.

Figures are queer things. We mean Democratic figures, and not the old-fashioned, cold and unromantic articles by which we used to solve the problems in Greenleaf. Our readers have heard of Democratic figuring before; but in common with other people who hope for improvement as times advance, they did expect that after all the failures of the threats and predictions of last year, the Democratic leaders would be shamed into silence. Instead, they are worse than ever. The disease is chronic: their case is hopeless. They are delighted over Pennsylvania and Ohio Democratic victories are henceforth to prevail everywhere, because the Republicans have carried those States.

How do they find this conclusion? Last year they said the Republicans ought not to claim the full benefit of their majorities, because in Presidential elections, after the contest is really decided, we got more than our average majorities. This year they say we must compare the vote with last year, ignoring the fact that they had declined to do so before. While they do not have the assurance to claim the whole benefit of this figuring, they come as near it as possible, and claim that Republicanism has rapidly declined, and is about giving up the ghost.

Let us see where their figures would really lead us. Suppose a State in 1867 gave a Republican majority of 5,000 and in 1868 25,000. These Democratic doctors would say, "That is not a Republican increase, but a decrease of 5000, because in 1864 you had a majority of 30,000." Very well;—then, if we carry the State in 1869 by 5,500, do we gain 500? "By no means," they say; "you have lost nearly 20,000 since last year!" That is, according to Democratic figures, we lost five thousand votes when we had but five to lose, still electing, and yet this year, with nothing to lose, we lose nearly twenty thousand more and elect again. Wouldn't it be funny, now that the Republican party is a minus quantity by about thirty thousand, if we should keep on losing from five to twenty thousand per year in the same State, and still gain a victory in 1872? That's the way it's working!

But you see Democratic rules don't work both ways. Large majorities and increases against them are of no sort of consequence, but tell hugely in their favor. Figures are queer things, to be sure. We wish we might live long enough to witness a Democratic victory to result from this odd arrangement by which an increase is wrung out by the rule of simple reduction. Our confidence in the usual "three score years and ten" fails us in that direction, however, when we think it all over; for instead giving up, the Republican party is the most lively ghost that ever frightened guilty consciences.

European and North American Railway.

The Daily Whig of Oct 9th 1752 in an article upon the prospects of the E. & N. A. Railway, which we copy by request, says:

We have laid before our readers the intelligence of the great and important fact that a contract has been made for the construction of a first class railroad from the boundary line of Maine, extending through the Province of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, with a branch to Shediac Bay, on the St. Lawrence Gulf, embracing a distance of 214 miles.

This is a portion of the road contemplated by the great railroad convention to be built as a material portion of the great highway of nations in their transit from the business centres of the Old World to the business centres of the New World, so that the present arrangements are substantially in favor of the grand plan and idea of the convention at Portland.

The efforts of the government of Nova Scotia to obtain the aid of the home government in constructing its portion of the road, have brought the whole subject so prominently and favorably before the capitalists of England that several of them, seeing in it an opportunity for the investment of their large capital where the interest would be fully secured to them, have concluded to take hold of the enterprise. One of their number, Wm. Jackson, M. P., his son Henry M. Jackson, Capt. Wm. Rhodes, President of the Quebec and Richmond Railroad, and Mr. Alexander Ross, C. E., of London, have recently met at Fredericton, by invitation of the Executive Committee of the E. and N. A. Railroad, several gentlemen interested in the construction of the road.

"The Portland Advertiser states that the New Brunswick Company was unwilling to contract for their part of the line, unless Maine should be prepared to construct her portion of the work. Such assurances however were given that the Company in New Brunswick consummated the contract with Mr. Jackson and his associates, which was signed by the parties on the 29th of September last. The Advertiser further states that, after passing over the line from St. John to Halifax, Mr. Jackson submitted an offer to the Executive of Nova Scotia for building the Nova Scotia portion of the line on the same terms as those accepted in New Brunswick.

At Eastport Mr. Jackson and his party were met by a committee of the citizens, with whom he partook of a collation, under circumstances which afforded great satisfaction to all concerned.

At Portland the Hon. Mr. Washburn of Orono, the Hon. Mr. Stetson of Bangor, and Col. Mayo of Orono, were waiting Mr. Jackson's arrival, to whom in company with other friends of the road, he communicated his views as to the policy of Maine in regard to the E. & N. A. R. R.

Mr. Jackson and his party in company with the Hon. J. H. Gray of St. John, a member of the Executive Council of New Brunswick, arrived in Portland on Saturday morning in the Admiral, and left in the afternoon by an express over the Montreal road, in company with Mr. Little, the president of the Railroad and other friends, making a party of some twenty-five in all. The impression left on all minds was, that the consummation of the entire work of constructing the E. & N. A. R. R. is now placed within our reach.

Mr. Jackson had an opportunity of spending some hours in Portland, and of seeing the commercial advantages of Portland, and in passing over the line of the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad, expressed his satisfaction with his visit to our State.

On the consummation of the bargain for the construction of the Montreal [illegible] Toronto Railroad, Mr. Jackson will depart for England, to take his seat in Parliament, which is summoned to [illegible] for business on the 11th of November next.

The abundance of money in [illegible], favors the construction of railways in British North America; and the arrival of Mr. Jackson, under the circumstances of his mission, is a matter of interest to Maine. We hope to see the best plan adopted to bring all our railway interests into harmony, under the full belief that such a result will secure at once the construction of our leading lines.

We cannot but congratulate the friends of the Montreal Railroad, and of the European and North American Railway, on the auspicious results of their labors, and to hope that Maine is now so far advanced in commercial importance, as to secure at an early day, the great destiny to which her friends have assigned her, and that, on the return of Hon. Mr. Jackson of Portland, we may be able to assure him of our ability to ensure the accomplishment of our portion of the great work now devolved upon Maine."

This whole subject is one of intense importance to Maine, and the general interests of the country and of the world. It may well awaken a new interest in all those in any way connected with the railroads of our country. In a short time the whole arrangement will be completed for the construction of this great road, except the single link through Maine, from the Kennebec river to the eastern line of the State. This link must be constructed, and to this point must be brought with local power, all the energies which can be gathered to its support. We trust Maine will be ready and willing to do her part, towards the immediate and rapid construction of this line, and that every interest will be faithfully and prudently invoked to help her in it.

ALASKA. An intelligent and apparently fairminded correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, who has recently visited all parts of Alaska, gives rather sombre picture of that new acquisition of ours. He says that nothing can be made to grow there to any profit, but potatoes, and that even these are poor watery things, which must be eaten immediately, or they will rot. The only really valuable productions are furs, fish and ice. But the seal-fur trade will need careful regulations to preserve it from speedy destruction. The ice and the fish we might have had without buying the country, which was nothing but a tax on Russia, which she has transferred to the United States.

The intercourse of American traders with the Indians of Alaska has thus far been injurious to a sad extent, by reason of the whiskey which they smuggled into them. The only bright side of this Alaska business is what may be called the political side. Its possession by the United States has seriously weakened, already, the hold of England on British Columbia, just south of Alaska, and made it certain that that country must sooner or later fall into the hands of the United States, a consummation much to be desired. The writer says that the control of the land and waters contiguous to Puget Sound will be worth all we have paid for Alaska, and more too; and if our government can only abstain from spending money on Alaska in a hopeless effort to populate it, or in giving offices to persons going there, who will have nothing to do but draw their pay, the people may well be satisfied with the purchase.

FATHER HYACINTHE AT NEW YORK. Father Hyacinthe reached New York in the steamer Periore, and is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where he will, it is said remain in seclusion ten days, and will then visit Boston and Washington. At the expiration of his visit to this country he will proceed to Rome to seek admission to the Ecumenical Council.

He brought letters of introduction to Gen. Dix and Rev. Henry ward Beecher, and is a personal friend of the Poet Longfellow and other distinguished gentlemen in this country. He does not speak the English Language. Fernando Wood was a fellow passenger, and extended many attentions to him during the voyage, which was very agreeable and pleasant.

Upon his arrival he proceeded very quietly to the House of a friend, and he will be waited upon by deputations from various denominations and societies, and be requested to explain his views on Roman Catholicism before their Congregations.

Gen. Gaant has been called upon at various times by a number of persons who had propositions to make in relation to the payment of the national debt, and various plans have been submitted. The President never attempted to disguise the fact that he would be glad if bonds could be issued bearing 4 or 4½ per cent. interest, payable in gold, the bond to state on its face it was payable in gold. Such a rate he believes, would be acceptable to Europe, and would be of great advantage to this country. The probabilities are that a recommendation like that indicated above will be made to Congress in the coming President's message. These views of the President are reliable, but he has never expressed them to an agent of the Rothschilds.

Gen. Lee has not yet begun to teach the young men of the South how to make news papers; but we hope he will lose no time.

An Alabama paper says of the Tuskaloosa University, to which it is proposed to invite Gen. Hardee as President:

"If we had to make a choice now between the University of Tuskaloosa and the Penitentiary at Wetumpka, we would, so far as reputation is concerned, as soon be a convict in the latter as a 'professor' in the former."

The Waynesboro Sentinel uses the following language towards one of its contemporaries:

"Was there ever such impudence as that of the low-born, lop-eared Maine whelp, calling his exudation of ideas that spring from the child of Bastardy on one side, and a Penitentiary on the other, The Georgia Republican! The Puppy has asked us to exchange with him."

Gen. Lee's professorship must of course include the study of decency, says the New York Tribune.

THE HEALTH OF GEORGE PEABODY.—The friends of George Peabody, Esq., will be gratified to learn of his safe arrival in England on the 8th inst. A letter written by him off Liverpool on that day, was received by one of his relatives, in which he states that though feeble his general health continues much the same as when he left.—He enjoyed a smooth and pleasant passage, and suffered not the least from sea-sickness. This intelligence will be received on this side of the water with a feeling of relief, and with the hope that once in his own home he may recover his former health.

The bonds deposited in the U. S. Treasury by the First National Bank of Nevada, for the security of its circulating notes, has been formally declared forfeited to the Government, and will be used in the redemption of the outstanding notes of the bank. These securities consist of $155,600 four per cent. United States bonds.

Closely following the movement in Ohio against the public school system comes intelligence from California that lately, Roman Catholic priests have forbidden parents in their communion to send their children to the public schools, under penalty of the anger of the church authorities.

OFFICIAL CHANGES IN TEXAS. Secretary Boutwell ordered fifteen changes in the Custom House at Galveston, Texas. A majority of the appointees were colored men.—Quite a number of changes were also made in the internal revenue offices. In effect, the change took off the heads of all of the remaining Hamilton adherents in the State.

Personal and Political.

Naturalization proceeds slowly at New York, this year.

Measures are about to be taken for the thorough reorganization of the Union League of America.

It is said that the lobby members are already gathering at Washington and laying their combinations.

The Louisville Journal, while regretting the fact, says: "This defeat in Ohio disposes of Mr. Pendleton for the present as effectually as the defeat last November disposed of Mr. Seymour."

The democracy of Tennessee politics is having its natural effect on the colored population. A Convention was recently held by them in Nashville, in which it was resolved that, in view of their discouraging prospects, immediate steps should be taken toward organizing an emigration society.

There having been some doubts expressed as to the meaning of the Ohio election on financial issues, Gov. Hayes' opinion ought to be regarded as decisive, as follows:

"By this election the people of Ohio have also decided to support no man whose principles lean toward repudiation. They believe that honesty is the best policy, and that there is no half-way house between an honest payment of the public debt and repudiation. They believe, with Grant, that the sound financial policy is economy, retrenchment, the faithful collection of the revenue and the payment of the public debt."

The commissioners to revise the statute laws of the State ask for carefully considered suggestions or propositions in regard to their work from the members of the legal profession. They will be able to report in full at the meeting of the Legislature.

The Inter-Colonial Railroad bids fair to prove a failure. The Commissioners met yesterday at Ottawa to consider the recently expressed desire of the contractors to suspend operations, owing to the low rates at which they undertook the work.—Nothing has become known as to the course the commissioners will pursue.—Many are of opinion that work will be suspended altogether on the line.

Consumption. DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption. DR. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach. DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS for Diseases of the Liver, or to act as a gentle Purgative. All of these three medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected. These medicines are conscientiously offered to the public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedies for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention. The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousands of cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has constantly increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure. If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this medicine has saved the life of the patient, and restored him to perfect health. Dr. Schenck himself was cured in precisely such circumstances, and many others have been equally fortunate by judiciously making a timely use of Dr Schenck's remedies. Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts, that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, and general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very badly diseased, and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicines. Also, in Scrofulous diseases these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores, and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be done to heal cavities in the lungs. In the treatment of Consumption, it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required, together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred; but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Sea Weed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designed. When the digestive powers are put in good order the food has its proper effect, the system of the patient is invigorated, and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of the Pulmonic Syrup will complete the cure. Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, bilious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine. In Consumption, the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs were almost entirely destroyed, and all symptoms, according to the judgment of physicians, indicated speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies. Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment, and general directions how to use his medicine, can be had gratis or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea Weed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen; Mandrake Pills, 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists and dealers. jan'37 smly

Tennessee Legislature—Election of U. S. Senator.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

A special has been rec'd by the evening telegraph.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 22.

The Senatorial contest is ended and the result has taken every one by surprise.—Johnson's friends felt confident of his success but it appears a trap was sprung on him and when the vote came to be taken Johnson rec'd 51 votes, and Cooper of Davidson Co. 55. Intense excitement prevailed when the vote was announced.

The Cuba Case.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 22.

The trial of the officers of the steamer Cuba was continued before the United States Commissioner to-day, and the court adjourned until ten o'clock tomorrow.

The only witness yet examined is Jordan, who said he belonged to the United States detective force. The defence expected to able to invalidate his testimony.

The trial may consume several days.

The sailors and marines have been quartered at the Seamen's Home by their officers and show no disposition to leave. They have generally conducted themselves in an orderly manner.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.

The Congressional Committee to take testimony in relation the outrages on American citizens in Paraguay, commenced its session today.

The Grand Jury this morning presented a batch of indictments to Judge Ingraham. The cases were of an ordinary character, no indictments being presented against Corbin or any of the gold speculators.

The Commercial says that Gen. Butterfield in a letter to Secretary Boutwell indignantly denies the assertion regarding his association with the "Gold Ring." Repudiates the idea that he has been any manner identified with its interests, and requests a full and searching official investigation.

Daniel Burke was today sentenced to be hanged on the 10th of December for the murder of Thomas Cave on the occasion of the great oil fire at Hunter's Point.

The strike among the machinists of the Erie road continues.

It is reported that a deficiency of $13,490 has been discovered in the accounts of the late City Treasurer of New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Counterfeiters Arrested

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 22.

The case of the parties charged with selling counterfeit tobacco stamps promises to lead to important disclosures. Two new arrests have been made in connection with it, one of them being Charles Jackson, a tobacco manufacturer, of Petersburg, who is charged with furnishing a genuine stamp to make counterfeits by.

Thomas W Robe and Frederick Baunasche were before the United States Commissioner today and held for trial.

The U S District Attorney in urging that a heavy bail be required, said that this was part of a motley gang, the principals of which would take them out of jail if $20,000 had to be forfeited to do so.

The Commissioner fixed the bail at $10,000 each and Baunasche gave it.

The factory of Baunasche was seized today for a violation of the revenue laws.

Other parties have been bailed to appear on Wednesday.

The case excites much interest from the fact that the parties were well known as former Revenue officials here.

From Havana

HAVANA, Oct. 22.

Small bodies of Rebels have made their appearance near Trinidad.

A skirmish took place between the insurgents and the Spanish troops in the Centro Villas District during which six of the insurgents were killed.

In the Sierra Neuvas District a small engagement took place between the Spaniards and Cubans during which the lost was 7 killed.

From Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

High Constable Clark has been removed by Mayor Fox. He has been connected with the Police for 15 years.

It is generally supposed that his removal grow out of his course during the political riot a few nights before the recent election.

Accident

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.

A boy named Dennis Breen was killed while coupling cars at Webster, Mass., this morning. He was about 15 years of age.

Earthquake.

EASTPORT, Oct. 22.

The earthquake here at 5:30 this morning was the most severe ever felt in this vicinity.

HARTFORD, Oct. 22.

A shock of earthquake was distinctly felt in different parts of this city about 5 o'clock this morning.

It was also felt in Windsor and other parts of the state.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.

About 5 oclock this morning a distinct shock of earthquake was felt in this city. The shock lasted about three seconds, and the motion appeared to be from East to West.

Thanksgiving Day in Michigan.

DETROIT, Oct. 22.

Gov. Baldwin has appointed the 18th day of November as a day of public thanksgiving.

Monetary Affairs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.

The money market today was easy and steady at from 5 to 7 per cent on call.

Discounts dull

Foreign Exchange was weak with quotations at 109⅛.

Gold market this afternoon was more active, closing at 131⅜ a 134⅛. The increased activity and advance of today is said to be due to the little speculation movement in the room.

The rates for carrying today were 2, 4, and 5 per cent.

Government securities closed quiet and firm this afternoon. The following are the closing quotations—

An Unusual Visitant—An Earthquake in Bangor

What with floods, hurricanes, typhoons, cyclones, tidal waves and earthquakes, our staid old city of Bangor is getting decidedly to putting on tropical airs. To complete the list of phenomena which have till of late been rare to us dwellers of "away down East," we were visited yesterday morning by an earthquake which even the most skeptical would hardly dare to say was "no great shakes." As we were among those who heard and felt the unusual sensation, we are able to state from our own observation, as well as from the report of others regarding it. At thirty-two minutes past five o'clock A. M., as indicated by our watch, though others call it thirty-five minutes past, we heard a sound and felt a jarring as if caused by a heavily loaded team driving over a rough and frozen road. The sound seemed to come from the Northeast, faint at first, then increasing and passing away in the Southwest. The rumbling and jarring quickly increased, so that doors and windows shook, pictures suspended from the walls rattled, house bells were rung, glass and china jingled, and stove covers beat a tattoo upon the stoves. The sleeping inmates of the houses were suddenly awakened with a sensation as though some one were violently shaking their beds, and those who were up and awake saw doors and shutters swung to and fro. The whole vibration lasted about thirty seconds, though some set it down as a minute in duration, but the former we believe to be most nearly correct. One gentleman reports that he was lighting a kerosene lamp and had placed the chimney upon the table, and the jarring threw it upon the floor, and broke it. Another gentleman reports that a bottle of whiskey which stood upon his bureau was thrown down and broken, but it may have been "spirits" and not the earthquake in this instance that did the damage. A gentleman residing on Third street states that his shutters were jarred open, and three panes of glass in his cellar windows shivered to atoms. This is the most that we have heard of in the way of damage. Almost every one who was asleep was awakened, and some weak nerves were considerably shaken. At the Muzzy Iron Works, a heavy hoisting gear attached to a crane, weighing some two hundred and fifty pounds, was swayed to and fro like a pendulum, and when the workmen entered the shop an hour afterwards, its oscillating motion had not ceased. We are told that a gentleman residing in one of the towns back of us, states that several lights of glass were broken in his house.

Dispatches from various points, North and South of us, and notes from correspondents in other towns speak of experiencing a similar shock at the same hour. It is said that no such shock has been felt here during the past six years. A gentleman, many years a resident of California, informs us that though he has seen more damage done there, he has never felt the shock of an earthquake there more sensibly than he did that of yesterday morning. It was quite a shake.

A dispatch from St. John speaks of the shock as being quite severe at that place.

At the Brewster Hotel in Skowhegan, a piano was moved several inches and a lamp overturned from a table. The shock at Skowhegan seems to have been more severe than at Bangor. At Kendalls Mills, Waterville, &c., the shock was particularly noticed.

POLICE COURT Friday, Oct. 22d. Wm. H. Ward was brought up on complaint for breaking and entering a school house on Pine street, in February last, and stealing a cape belonging to the teacher and curtains therefrom. He was also brought up on another complaint for stealing a rug from the house of J. W. Torrens. On the first complaint he was committed to jail in want of bail in the sum of $400 for his appearance in February next at the Supreme Court. To the second complaint he plead guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

Truman Snow was fined $3 and costs for being drunk and making a disturbance.

John Washburn was brought up for entering the garden of James McLaughlin, Esq., on Third Street, at various times, and stealing grapes therefrom. He plead guilty and was committed in want of $300 bail to answer to the Supreme Court in February next.

A COOL OPERATION. A fellow went to the house of a gentleman on Hammond St., Thursday afternoon, and told his wife he had been sent for his overcoat, as he was going with the captain of a vessel of which he (the fellow) was the mate, to see about a freight. She gave him an overcoat, not suspecting but all was right, and after being gone about long enough to go to the gentleman's store, he returned, saying it was the other coat he wanted, and she gave him a coat much more valuable than the first. It is needless to add that neither the coat nor the "mate" have since been seen or heard from.

—Rev. I. C. Wellcome will preach in Concert Hall on Sunday.

—We had another wet day yesterday, but it cleared off finely at night.

—Union service in Central Church tomorrow evening at 7½ o'clock.

—We shall give a report of the proceedings of the Congressional Committee on American Navigation which met at Portland Thursday.

UPSET. W understand that the hack of the Merchant's Exchange Hotel at Dexter, was tipped over in front of the house on Thursday evening, but fortunately no person was injured and little damage done.

TIMBER LANDS FOR SALE. All the lands granted by the State of Maine to aid the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad, will be sold at auction at the Penobscot Exchange in this city on Thursday, Nov. 4th, by John B. Foster, Esq., auctioneer. It is an important sale and is worthy the attention of capitalists from abroad.

—One of the best hotels between Bangor and Houlton, is at Molunkus, and is kept by Mr. H. Reed. Everything is neat and comfortable in and about the house, the beds are clean, and the table well supplied. They know just how to keep a house, and do it.

THE CARPENTER'S GUIDE may be found at the bookstore of E. F. Duren, Hammond Street.

—Norombega Hall will be elegantly decorated for the approaching Catholic Fair, by Col. Beal of Boston. In style it will be different from anything before shown here, and will be appropriate to the occasion.

Funerals.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

I noticed the article upon Sunday funerals by "Pastor," and I heartily agreed with him in his suggestion to do away with Sabbath funerals as far as possible, but the plan suggested by another that the whole system be done away with as now conducted, I must utterly condemn. It is true that the custom of wearing mourning is often times a great burden upon the family, but this is not its chief objection. The custom is at variance with the Gospel of Christ

We profess to believe that the Christian meets with an infinite gain at death, and goes at once into the presence of his Savior. How it belies such a belief to robe ourselves with the badge of sadness and gloom. It is true that the death of those we love may crush us and be like taking a limb from the body, but then we know that our loss is their gain,

But my object in writing was rather to protest against the idea of giving up the funerals as now conducted. Let that time never come

In some of our large cities there is but a short prayer offered and the dead are consigned to the grave, and the great throng pass along without regard. But when my house is entered by death, I want my Pastor; I want my friends; I want sweet music, all conspiring to bring relief and strengthen my heart. No, no; let the time never come in this busy, bustling world, when we shall so far forget our dead as to make the burial a mere matter of convenience.

WELL BUILT CARRIAGES. Under the careful management of Warden W. W. Rice, the Maine State Prison is turning out some exceedingly well built and stylish carriages. At the Exchange Stables a few days since, we noticed a Beach wagon made for Col. Joseph W. Porter of Burlington, which was certainly better put together and more stylish than many much higher priced carriages which are brought from Massachusetts. Mr. Rice has not only brought the institution to an economical basis, but has succeeded in elevating the standard of the manufactures of the establishment.

—Mr. Plummer, County Supervisor of Schools, is engaged this week in holding a Teachers' Institute at Patten. He will speak on "The wants of our Schools system" at Winn, Friday evening, Oct. 22d; at Lincoln, Saturday evening, Oct. 23d; at Lee, Monday evening, Oct. 26th; at Springfield, Tuesday evening, Oct. 26th; at Burlington, Wednesday evening, Oct. 27th, and at Passadumkeag, Tuesday evening, October 28th.

DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN. Nathan B. Wiggin, Esq., a prominent citizen of Bangor, died yesterday morning at the advanced age of seventy. He was for many years a Surveyor of lumber, and always enjoyed the reputation of being an upright citizen.

—The Western Union Telegraph Company are having a fine office fitted up on West Market Square, by Dr. W. H. Brown. The location is a good one and will better accommodate their patrons.

—A case of kleptomania is reported in Portland. In old times the "patient" would have been called a thief.

NATHAN B. ROBBINS, Esq., a prominent citizen of Union, died on Saturday last. His funeral was attended by Claremont Commandery K. T., of which body he was a member.

—Mr. G. A. Lynde of Rockland, is erecting a large hotel in that city, an institution much needed.

—Amos McCorrison of Appleton, an aged citizen, left his home a few days since and has not since been heard from.

—Travellers report that Garland of Kenduskeag is keeping a capital hotel.

—The house and out-buildings of Robert Russ of Swanville, were burned last Friday night. Loss $1200.

—The offices of Deputy Collector at Stockton and Temporary Inspector at Camden, have been abolished.

—The town of Andover is building a fine town house, at the corner, 88x60 feet, two stories. The second story is to be finished as a hall for public lectures, &c.

—The house, barn and outbuildings of J. Y. Baker of Searsport, were burned with nearly all their contents, on the night of the 6th inst. Loss, $4,000. Insured $1100.

—Rufus J. Farrington has been appointed Postmaster at Burnham Village, vice N. E. Murray, resigned.

—Walter Hatch, Esq., and family of Augusta, will leave next month for Florida, where they will spend the winter.

—The Maine Savings Bank, Portland, Wednesday, at its semi-annual meeting, declared a dividend at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, free of government taxes.

—Rev. George W. Bicknell of Skowhegan, Me., accepted the call from the Universalist church at Portsmouth, and will enter upon his duties in November next.

—The father of a newly-married young lady in Augusta, as we learn from the Journal, made his daughter the very handsome bridal present of a finely furnished house and five thousand dollars in money each to bride and bridegroom. We suppose the father referred to is Col. G. W. Stanley.

—The York Manufacturing Company has declared a dividend of one hundred dollars per share (ten per cent. $1000 being the par value,)—making twenty per cent. which this corporation will have divided among its stockholders during the year 1869, besides laying up something in addition to swell the surplus fund.

A. G. Stinchfield of Maine, is among the Americans reported in Paris.

THE AGED BROTHERHOOD. An Association of men has been formed in Portland called the Aged Brotherhood. The qualifications for membership are good moral character and experience on this planet of at least sixty-five years. Oliver Gerrish, Esq., is President.

—A barn owned by Mr. Stephen Martin of Kezar Falls, Parsonfield, was consumed by fire on the night of the 7th inst. with all its contents, consisting of about 10 tons of hay, carriages, farming tools, &c. Loss, $500 or more. No insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

—The Lewiston Journal says Archibald Campbell, a man in the employ of the Lewiston Gas Light Company, while putting in a service pipe from the main pipe on Pine street to the new Free Baptist Church, was rendered insensible by inhaling the escaping gas. Two physicians were called by the bystanders, but Campbell was recovered by throwing water upon his head, and sustained only temporary ill effects from the accident.

—Two sections of that portion of the Portland & Ogdensburg Railroad called the Lamoille Valley Railroad, are now nearly located and ready for contract, viz: From St. Johnsbury to the Lamoille River in Hardwick on the Eastern end of the line, and from Swanton to the Lamoille River in Cambridge on the Western end, leaving only 25 or 30 miles of the road to locate between the two points named above.

—The Belfast Journal says Mr. D. L. Pitcher of that city, was quite seriously injured last Friday morning on the Park. He was driving with his family around the track when he came in collision with a team going across, which overturned his carriage, throwing him, his wife and two children over the railing, bruising them all and injuring him quite severely.

—Father Egan, the Catholic priest in Augusta, has received a call to go to New Hampshire, but is undecided whether to accept or not. He has been in Augusta fourteen years, and as an evidence of his popularity, a petition signed by the leading citizens of that city without regard to religious belief, has been sent to Bishop Bacon, asking that Father Egan may remain in that city.

STATUE OF THE LATE HON. WILLIAM PITT FESSENDEN. A proposition to erect a statue to the memory of the late Senator Fessenden has been broached. The Portland Press says there are thousands of men in Maine who will esteem it a privilege to contribute to a fund for that purpose, and the State, speaking through its Senators and Representatives, will not hesitate to appropriate sufficient to embody the sanction of the Commonwealth, and enable all her sons and daughters of every sect and creed and party, to feel that they have added their mite to an object so grand and praiseworthy.

—"Carleton," the correspondent of the Boston Journal, who has traveled the world over and is now somewhere out in Minnesota, writes: "Whenever you find a farm house anywhere out West where there are delicious apple-pies, or anything especially nice in the pastry line on the table, you may be pretty sure that the hostess came from Maine; at least such has been my experience, and experience is said to be the best of teachers. I remember of calling at a house in Central Missouri during the war, and instead of having the standard dish of Missouri, 'hog and hominy,' I obtained a luxurious dinner, finishing off with apple-pie, and pastry molded by fair hands that were trained to housework on the banks of the Penobscot; and last year I found a lady from Maine among the Sierra Nevadas. I was confident she was from the Pine Tree State the moment I saw her pies; for some how the daughters of down East have the knack of making pastry that would ravish the senses of an epicure. And now in Minnesota we sit down to a substantial dinner topped off, rounded and made complete by a piece of Maine apple pie.

LOSS OF LIFE AT SEA. The schooner Mary, of Jonesport, Me., was towed into Chatham yesterday, having been found abandoned and full of water on Nantucket Shoals. The body of a dead man was found lashed to the rigging bearing on its left arm the initials "J. D. K." All the rest of the crew are supposed to have perished. This is the vessel that was seen capsized on the night of the 16th instant by the brig Kildare, since arrived at Holmes' Hole, which passed near her and heard cries of distress, but the sea at the time was too rugged to admit of rendering any assistance. She was again seen on the following morning, but no one was observed on the vessel, and the crew were supposed to have been washed off during the night, as they could have clung but a short time to the wreck, owing to the heavy sea.

ABOLISHED. The Secretary of the Treasury has abolished the office of Surveyor of Customs at Eastport, Maine

—The Bath Times is informed that on Saturday of last week Benjamin Hurd of Skowhegan was committed to Thomaston State Prison, under sentence of one year and three months, for having stolen $400 in government bonds, belonging to an old man named Fletcher, who died under suspicious circumstances a year ago last fall at Hurd's house, where he had boarded. The old man had some two or three thousand dollars in bonds, which after his death were found secreted in an attic in Hurd's house. Hurd admitted that he took the amount alleged above from these bonds. It is supposed that the old man came to his death by being drugged. A widow Dickson, who was living with Hurd at the time, was implicated in in the robbery and after an examination was acquitted.

—The Observer says we learn that Mr. William Mitchell, of Abbott, residing on an interval farm lost at the late flood in Piscataquis, three acres of stacked corn.

—The Wiscasset Oracle says a wonderful echo can be heard in the harbor, at that place. It repeats distinctly 18 syllables.—The celebrated echo in Woodstock Park, Oxfordshire, England, repeats seventeen syllables by day and twenty by night.

PERSONAL. We are glad to say that Mr. George Gifford, one of the editors of the Daily Press, who has been dangerously ill at Vassalboro' is much better and his physician is of the opinion that he will now entirely recover his health.

—Port. Star.

—Mr. Morris, the Treasurer of the late New England Fair, this morning mailed $8354, the amount of premiums awarded to exhibitors. This sum is distributed all over New England. Persons in this city entitled to cash premiums are requested to call at the post office for their letters enclosing the amount due to them.—Port. Advertiser.

FATHER HYACINTHE. On Tuesday morning Rev. Dr. Prime of New York sought and had an interview with Pere Hyacinthe, and expressed to him the great satisfaction which the Protestant clergy and all friends of religious liberty had experienced in the course which he felt himself constrained to take with reference to the Church of Rome, and declared that the sympathies of the entire Christian community were with Father Hyacinthe, whatever might be his present or prospective ecclesiastical position. To this the Father responded: "I shall esteem it an honor and a pleasure to become acquainted with all the Christian people of this country. I recognize the Protestant as well as the Catholic as the religion of Christ, and desire while I am in the United States to make myself thoroughly acquainted with the religious, social and political state of things. Je reste un Catholic (I remain a Catholic) but I resist the abuses of the Church," Dr. Prime asked if while he (Pere Hyacinthe) was in this country he would address public assemblies, remarking that the community would be greatly pleased to hear his utterances.—Father Hyacinthe responded that he desired to remain quiet while he was here, and to observe without being heard.

THE ALABAMA STATE DEBT INTEREST. The Montgomery, Ala., Journal of Saturday says; "Complete arrangements have been made for paying all the interest on the State debt which falls due on the first of next month. The requisite amount of money for that purpose was drawn from the State Treasury yesterday to be placed in a proper bank in New York city, where the interest is payable." This information is derived from an authoritative source, accompanied by the assurance that the financial condition of the State Government is perfectly healthy.

The Superintendent of the Money Order Division of the Post office Department, in preparing the data for the annual report of the Postmaster General, states that the growth of the system of money orders in this country, which has been in operation for about four years, has been unprecedented. The amount of money transmitted by postal orders during the last year was something over $16,000,000, and during the fiscal year ending last June, the amount reached the astounding figure of $46,000,00 The number of orders required for this amount was about 2,300,000. The amount of revenue to the Department from this source is very great, while the outlay is very small.

The Opinion Nacional says there is an understanding between the Republicans of Spain and the Cubans by which the latter is to furnish means and receive their independence when the Republic is established

Rev. Orange Clark, the oldest Episcopal minister on the Pacific Coast, died in San Francisco on the 9th inst. He was 72 years old.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post says there is good authority for saying that, for the present at least, no new revenue appointments will be made for the New England States. Commissioner Delano announces his intention of consolidating all the New England States into one District, with only one Supervisor.

General Titus, a commander of a New Hampshire regiment during the war, but since 1865 a resident of Virginia, where he is a large owner of real estate, is now named as a candidate for the Virginia Senatorship.

VALUABLE

AND MILL PROPERTY

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, desirous of disposing of all his interest in Timber Lands and mills, will sell on favorable terms the following:

One-Half Township No. 5, Range 4, Oxford County.

The whole township contains twenty-six thousand (26,000) acres; is heavily timbered with spruce, estimated at sixty to eighty millions, all of which stands within near and easy hauling distance of the Magalloway river or its branches, which runs through the town, or Parmachena Lake, which is embraced within its limits.

Also 16,000 Acres of Land in the Town of Byron-Oxford Co.,

well covered with large Spruce timber. Swift river and its branches run through these lands and empty into the Androscoggin below Rumford Falls.

Also 1100 Acres Timber and Wood Land in Town of Gorham, N. H.,

two miles above the Alpine House, on the line of the Grand Trunk Railroad, and the banks of the Androscoggin river. There is a large quantity of wood on these lots which, from its proximity to the Railroad, is steadily increasing in value.

Also 2500 Acres Lands in the Towns of Albany and Stoneham, near the village of North Waterford, Oxford County. This land is covered with thrifty sapling Pine timber, standing near Crooked river, which runs through the tract. Logs put into Crooked river can be run to Saccarappa, or by hauling four to five miles they can be put into the Saco. There is a good mill privilege, with a single saw mill on the tract; distance to the canal at Harrison ten miles; to the railroad at South Paris twelve miles. The land is valuable for settling purposes after being cleared of timber.

Also 435 Shares of Stock in the Lewiston Steam Mill Company, the whole capital stock being represented by 827 shares. The property of the company consists of a Steam Saw Mill, capable of manufacturing five million feet of long lumber, with a proportionate amount of clapboards, shingles and laths. About fifteen acres land in the city of Lewiston, well located for building purposes, and thirty thousand acres of timber land, well located on the Androscoggin river and its branches, from which but a small quantity of the timber has been cut.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®.COM

THE BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

OH! BE NOT FIRST.

Oh, be not the first to discover
A blot on the name of a friend,
A flaw in the faith of a lover
Whose heart may prove true in the end.

We none of us know one another,
And oft in error we fall,
Then we should speak kind of a brother,
Or speak not of him at all.

A smile or a sigh may awaken
Suspicion most false and untrue;
And thus our belief may be shaken
In hearts that are honest and true.

How often the light smile of gladness
Is worn by the friends that we meet
To cover a soul full of sadness,
Too proud to acknowledge defeat.

How often the sigh of dejection
Is heard from the hypocrite's breast,
To parody truth and affection,
Or lull a suspicion to rest.

How often the friends we hold dearest
The noblest emotions conceal,
Have hearts the purest, sincerest,
And secrets they cannot reveal.

I'll leave base minds to harbor suspicion,
And small ones to trace my defects;
Mine shall be a nobler ambition,
For base is the mind that suspects.

We none of us know one another,
And oft into error we fall;
Then we should speak kind of a brother,
Or speak not of him at all.

THE NEW BABY. Yes, there's another of 'em up stairs now. I knowed it, 'cause papa told me I must be quiet, and sit down in the corner with my books, and mustn't play nor ask Willie Smart to come in, and help me put my new puzzle together.—Then there's a cross nurse that's always scolding me for getting in her way, no matter where I get. Besides, Miss. Cadall was here to-day, and she took me on her knee, patted me on the back just like the cook does when I'm choking, and said my nose was another degree out of joint; but I knew better, for this is the third time she has told me so, and it is no more out of joint than it ever was. She's a hateful, goggle-eyed old maid—that's what she is.

I saw, too. It's got a little, round, red head, without any hair, with great, deep wrinkles instead of eyes, and when it cries it opens its mouth as though it meant to swallow itself. Papa helped me upon the side of the bed, and told me to kiss my dear pretty little sister; and when I would not, and, called it a horrid, ugly, little thing, he said I was a naughty boy, and then nurse shook me, and said I had ought to be ashamed. I didn't get to kiss my ma at all. I know better than to try it, for once, when another baby came, I climbed on the bed, and, putting my arms around her neck, hugged and kissed her; but all the time I had my right knee on the baby's head; so I was whipped and put in my crib without any supper, because I didn't know it was there.

Little Annie thinks it nice to have a new sister, but she was the baby before and don't know anything about it. I can remember long, long ago, ma used to call me her 'sweet little darling,' and pa dandled me on his foot, and said I was 'fine fellow,' and Aunt Julia declared that I was a 'perfect little angel;' but then Tom came, and all my pretty toys were given to him cause he was the baby, and I was cuffed and scolded by everybody 'cept grandma, and she's good to me yet, though there's been two other new ones since.

I wonder where all the babies come from? Ma says the Lord sends them. I wish he wouldn't send any more to our house; we've got more'n enough now. It might be nice for them if they could stay little always, but they have to grow big after a while, but they ain't no better off than the rest of folks. I rather think if I was a baby I'd ask the Lord to send me where I'd not grow any bigger, and then I have nothing to do but to lie on my back, and chew my toes, and have folks say I was the 'darlingest little creature they ever laid eyes on.'

DIFFERENCE IN THE QUALITY OF EGGS. The Journal of Agriculture says, though most farmers keep fowls and raise their own eggs, there are many who have not learned the difference there is in the richness and flavor of eggs produced by well fed hens, and those from birds that have been half starved through our winters. There will be some difference in the size, but far more in the quality. The yolk of one will be large, fine colored and of good substance, and the albumen, or white, clear and pure; while the contents of the other will be watery and meagre, as in the parent fowl, to properly carry out and complete the work nature had sketched. In order, therefore, to have good eggs, the fowl should be well fed, and also provided during the months they are unable to come to the ground, with a box containing an abundance of fine gravel, that they may be able to grind and prepare their food for digestion. Of eggs, those from the domestic hen are decidedly the best, but those of ducks and geese may be used for some of the purposes of domestic cookery.

HOW TO TEST FLOUR. The writer of the following, which we quote from an exchange paper, speaks as one with authority and we give it the advantage of our circulation, for the good of whomsoever it may concern:

"Place a thimbleful in the palm of the hand and rub it gently with the finger. If the flour smoothes down, feeling gentle and slippery, it is of inferior quality, though of fancy brand, high-priced, and white as the virgin snow-drift, and will never make good and wholesome bread. But if the flour rubs rough in the palm, feeling like fine sand and has an orange tint, purchase confidently. It will not disappoint you. Such flour, whatever may be its branded reputation, though its price be at the lowest figure, will make good, light, nutritious bread."

INK STAINS. A correspondent of the N. Y. World sends that paper the following, which some of our lady readers may find valuable:

"In a visit to Marseilles, a little incident came within my observations, which, may prove serviceable to many of your large class of readers. In the Hotel des Empereurs where I was residing, an inkstand was accidently overturned upon a beautiful tablespread; those present thought that the cloth was ruined. A servant being called in to remove the article from the table, all were surprised when he assured us that no harm had been done, and more surprised still, at witnessing the successful means resorted to for removing the ink stains. The servant sprinkled over the cloth a quantity of pepper and salt, and rubbed them over the surface. The mixture soon absorbed every portion of the ink, and the table-spread was in as good condition as before the accident. The spread was of woolen fabric. I have never had an occasion for testing the merits of this simple mixture when applied to other cloths, but it certainly would not be attended with any bad result."

A correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph says:

"The dahlia is in my opinion, one of the most desirable flowers in cultivation. It is easily grown either from seeds or tubers. To preserve the roots through the winter, they should be taken from the ground as soon as the tops have been killed by the frost, and laid in a cool, dry room for two or three days, then wrap them in several old newspapers, and lay them in a closet in the sitting room or any place where they will not absolutely freeze or dry up with heat. About the first of April plant in a box in the house or hot bed. As soon as they have sprouted, and all danger from frost is past, take them up and divide the sprouts; allow a root or part of one, to attach to each sprout, if you choose, but this seems to be a matter of utter indifference to the dahlia, as they manage very well without any such a 'base of supplies.' They should be trained to an upright position, and tied to a strong stake, as otherwise they are easily thrown down by storms, etc. Only the late flowers perfect seed, which resembles zinnia seed."

NICE DISHES FOR INVALIDS—OAT MEAL GRUEL. Put a cup of raisins in a cup of water and boil half an hour. Mix two tablespoonfuls of oatmeal with a little cold water and salt, and stir in with rasins. Let it boil up and skim it well. Sweeten with white sugar and a little nutmeg. This is very nourishing.

TOAST WATER. Two slices of stale bread toasted a nice brown, pour over a pint of hot water and few teaspoonfuls of good vinegar; and sugar and nutmeg to suit taste.

BEEF TEA. Cut a piece of lean, juicy beef into small pieces, put them into a wide-mouthed bottle, cork tight, place in a kettle of cold water, and boil for an hour and a half. Season with salt.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Third Session of the Fortieth Congress

[PUBLIC—No. 87.]

AN ACT making appropriations to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the service of the government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and they are hereby, appropriated, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the service of the government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine:

For the contingent expenses of the Treasury Department, and the several bureaus, namely: For fuel, light, gas, labor, and contingent expenses of the Treasury building and five other buildings occupied by the Treasury Department, forty thousand dollars.

And after the present fiscal year there shall only be employed and paid for labor in the Treasury building and the five other buildings used by the department, for lighting, cleaning, and general care and superintendence thereof, the following persons, to wit: one superintendent, at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars a year; one clerk of class four and one clerk of class one; one engineer in charge of heating apparatus, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars a year; five firemen, at a salary of six hundred dollars each per year; one machinist and gas-fitter, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per year; one captain of the watch, at a salary of fourteen hundred dollars per year; one storekeeper, at a salary of one thousand dollars per year; thirty watchmen, [watchmen,] at a salary of eight hundred and twenty dollars each per year, thirty laborers, at a salary of six hundred dollars each per year; seventy women, as cleaners, at a salary of one hundred and eighty dollars each per year: And it is hereby provided, That no account for contingent expenses at any of the bureaus of the Treasury Department shall hereafter be allowed, except on the certificate of the general superintendent of the Treasury buildings that they are necessary and proper, and that the prices paid are just and reasonable; and the said superintendent shall keep a full, just and accurate account in detail of all amounts expended under the head of contingent expenses for the several bureaus of the Treasury Department, which shall be transmitted to Congress by the Secretary of the Treasury at every December session. And the expenditure for furniture and repairs for the same shall be made by the said superintendent, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and it shall be the duty of said superintendent to keep a just and accurate account in detail of all the amounts paid for the purchase of furniture, and also for the repairs thereof, as well as a full statement of the disposition of the old furniture all of which shall be transmitted to Congress at every December session thereof by the Secretary of the Treasury: And provided further, That no part of the appropriations made by this or any subsequent act for contingent and incidental expenses shall be paid for clerk-hire, messengers, or laborers.

To complete the north wing of the treasury building and approaches, including all liabilities, one hundred and sixty-three thousand five hundred and nine dollars and twenty cents: Provided, That no extra compensation exceeding one-eighth of one per centum in any case shall hereafter be allowed to any officer, person, or corporation, for disbursing any moneys appropriated to the construction of any public building.

For repairs and preservation of public buildings, thirty-five thousand dollars.

For necessary expenses in carrying into effect the several acts of Congress, authorizing loans and the issue of treasury notes, four hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That no work shall be done in the Engraving and Printing Bureau for private parties.

For supplying deficiency in the fund for the relief of sick and disabled seamen fifty thousand dollars.

For amount required to supply a deficiency in the appropriation for salary, miscellaneous, and other expenses of the United States Patent Office for the month [s] of March, April, May and June, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, two hundred thousand dollars.

For amount required to supply deficiency in the appropriation for expenses of courts, [illegible] hundred thousand dollars, and no part of this appropriation shall be paid to employ aid [illegible] counsel to assist district attorneys.

American & Foreign Patents

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Lat Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837.

No. 78 State Street, (opposite Kilby street,) Boston

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART."

Prisoners of War.

REBEL PRISONS!

BY LAWS JUST ENACTED, each Soldier is to be paid money in lieu of rations, for every day he was held a prisoner of war by the rebels.

Also, the same will be paid to the heirs of every soldier who died while a prisoner, or who died after his release, for all the time he was a prisoner, to be paid in the following order: First, To the soldier's widow, if any, if none—Second, To his children, if none—Third, To his parents, if none—Fourth, Brothers and sisters.

Blanks of all kinds and full directions have been furnished me from Washington, and I am prepared to collect these claims on very reasonable terms. Full information given at my office, or by letter, free of charge.

Blanks to be signed can be sent by mail, on application.

These cases are settled without the applicants' attendance usually.

C. P. BROWN,

Att'y and Claim Agent.

N. B.—Pensions, Bounty, Pay, Extra Pay, and War Claims collected as heretofore.

Caution.

ALL persons are cautioned against depositing rubbish in the Streets and gutters, in violation of a City Ordinance, as all such will be prosecuted.
